

DENVER SCHOOL of the ARTS

From the Office of the Principal

February 5, 2016

Dear DSA Families:

We want to let you know that Denver School of the Arts is working with the DPS Department of Safety and the Denver Police Department to investigate an allegation of misconduct made yesterday by a student against an independent contractor. We have suspended the contractor, which is routine, until the matter is resolved.

Please know that we are cooperating fully with investigators to ensure this matter is handled appropriately and quickly. We will share the results as fully as possible, as soon as possible. At this time, it would be inappropriate to provide additional details.

As you know, the well-being of our students is our first concern, and we will do everything possible to ensure that they are safe and their learning is not interrupted.

I want to thank you all for your support and patience. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

William M. Kohut,
Principal, Denver School of the Arts
