

From the Office of the Principal

April 10, 2019

Dear DSA Community,

I am writing to update you on after-school activities with the impending storm. The weather forecast is currently calling for blizzard conditions starting this afternoon and lasting into the evening hours. The forecast is also calling for snow to continue until 11 am tomorrow. With this forecast in mind we want to make sure our community is safe and not on the roads. Many of you travel from all parts of the metropolitan area. All afternoon and evening activities at DSA will be cancelled today. The evening performance of the 8th grade play, "Seussical" will be moved to a 1 pm performance on Sunday.

In order to be pro-active for tomorrow, Thursday, April 11th we will also be moving the performance of the 8th grade play in case Denver Public Schools cancels classes tomorrow. This performance will be moved to 3:00 pm on Sunday.

Sincerely,

William M. Kohut,
Principal
