

DENVER SCHOOL of the ARTS

From the Office of the Principal

December 13, 2018

DSA Families,

As we approach winter break, I would like to take this opportunity to wish each of you and your families a most happy, healthy winter break and Happy New Year! I hope that you will have a chance to relax and enjoy some down time with your families.

Next week is the final week of first semester. Monday will be a stripe day of classes with tutoring until 7:55 am and classes beginning at 8:00 am. Both Tuesday and Wednesday will serve as final exam days for our students. There will be NO school for DSA students on Thursday and Friday. DPS Transportation will not provide bus service to DSA. Only students who have make-up work or exams to complete will be required to report to DSA on these days. You will be notified by teachers if your student needs to report for make-up work.

Remember, the DSA Offices will be closed from Friday, December 21st at 3:00 pm through Friday, January 4th. The offices will reopen at 7:00 am on Monday, January 7th.

On Monday, January 7th and Tuesday January 8th DSA will be hosting Culture Days for our DSA students. On Monday, January 7th, ONLY middle school students (grades 6-8) will attend school from 8:00 am – 2:55 pm. On Tuesday, January 8th, ONLY high school students (grades 9-12) will attend school from 8:00 am – 2:55 pm. All students will report to their arts major at 8:00 am on these days. Attendance will be taken in their arts major and groups assignments and schedule for the day will be provided to all students. Students will be participating in culture building activities, seminars, and attending a performance arranged through the Mizel Center for the Arts in the Schomp Theater. Regular classes will resume on Wednesday, January 9th.

You are reminded to check our school website on a regular basis for updates and information, including any closures that may happen related to weather.

Have a wonderful and enjoyable winter break.

Artistically,

William M. Kohut,
Principal
