

Callback List for CW Auditions 2026-27

Thanks to everyone for auditioning. It is inspiring to read so much wonderful work and see what a crucial role creative writing plays in your lives. If you aren't given an interview slot this year—as disappointing as we know that is—please don't take it as a sign that you aren't a talented writer; we simply have limited capacity to take as many students as deserve a spot in our program. Please note that we are not able to provide individual feedback on written audition materials. We know this can be frustrating, especially for those not given an interview slot. Our best advice is to keep writing, and think about auditioning again next year.

The lists on the following pages contain the students we would like to interview, divided by grades and interview date. If your audition number does not appear on your grade level list below, please be aware you will not be able to move on to the next step of the audition; furthermore, we cannot offer you a spot in Creative Writing next year. For those students listed below, interviews will be held via GoogleMeets at the link provided. Please join the GoogleMeets call one or two minutes ahead of your scheduled time, and we will admit you from the virtual waiting room. You do not need to prepare anything for the interview. Due to the complexities of scheduling, we will not be able to grant alternative interview times. An invitation to attend the interview does not guarantee a spot in the Creative Writing Department. Openings are determined by positions available in each grade level, as well as scores on the written audition materials.

Notification emails will be sent on Wednesday, Jan 14th, 2026
